ROCKVILLE ACADEMY.

Extract from the Rules for the government of the Rockville Academy in Montgomery County, Maryland, as established by the Trustees of said Academy.

"The professor in the classical department for the Latin and Greek languages is to be considered as the Rector or principal of the institution; whose duty it shall be to superintend the general management of the several schools, with authority to insist upon a due observance and execution of the rules, to aid and assist the other teachers by his counsel and advice, and to enforce good order and proper discipline throughout the institu ion.

"The pupils in both schools must be punctual in their attendance, and must come in and go out of school in silence and good order, &c.

"The greatest attention shall be paid both in and out of school to good morals and decency of behavior.

"The price of tuition in the classical department shall be 26 2 3 dollars per annum, payable quarterly in advance.

"This academy is now in complete operation under the direction of the Reverend Mr Samuel Martin, as principal. There is room for several students in the classical department, for whom good board in genteel families and on moderate terms can be procured."

J. ELGAR, Secretary.
